About the Hosts

Todd Pruitt has been the lead pastor at Covenant Presbyterian Church in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley since 2013. Originally from Houston, Texas, Todd is a graduate of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City. He has served churches in Oklahoma, Kansas, and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Over a period of years, he came to embrace the Reformed faith and has been a happy Presbyterian ever since.

Carl Trueman is professor of biblical and religious studies at Grove City College. In addition to hosting Mortification of Spin, Carl is a contributing editor at First Things, a church historian, and a fellow at the Ethics and Public Policy Center. Trueman has authored or edited over a dozen books, including The Creedal Imperative. He is a member of the Orthodox Presbyterian Church, where he has also served as a pastor.

WHAT LISTENERS SAY

Fantastic!

My commute to and from work is usually over an hour long. Needless to say, sometimes I wish it was double the length just so that I could listen more to these gentleman! Carl and Todd are a dynamic and witty duo and their podcast is comprised of good banter, thoughtful interviews, and highly relevant topics that need to be mulled over and discussed by Christians everywhere.

Timely

Mingle good doctrine and practical implications. Thoughtful yet with good understanding of ordinary peoples.

Love it, keep it up, favorite...

I look forward to this podcast every other week. They are doctrinally sound, humble yet willing to state truth and relevant to current PCA/evangelical culture wars. I also appreciate the dry humor.
